

CHAI CLUB COMMENDING THOSE WHO GO ABOVE AND BEYOND

They don't have secret identities or wear outlandish costumes, but you can find plenty of superheroes at B'nai Moshe. Just check out the Chai Club board in the synagogue lobby.

Chai Club members have taken on the mitzvah of voluntarily paying above and beyond their normal dues - an act of kindness that's hard enough to accomplish when the economy is strong, but even more remarkable now that times are tough. In fact, in this time of need their efforts are more important than ever.

For without the generosity of our Chai Club members, we could not operate a full-service synagogue. Dues alone cannot support the programming and operations of our synagogue. Chai Club members help us maintain the quality and dignity of B'nai Moshe religious services. They also help fund adult education, music and LIFE programs.

You, too, can join the Chai Club and earn the title "hero." Simply call the B'nai Moshe office at (248) 788-0600 to get started. Of course, secret identities, capes and costumes are optional.
